

Meshuggah-Nuns!

The opening play of the season was a big hit. Audiences loved the show. Not to kvell, but several people commented that our performance exceeded shows they had seen elsewhere, which is a tribute to the caliber and passion of the cast, band, stage and set crew. For those that got to see the show, it was clear the cast enjoyed it as much as the audience.

Correction

The last play of the 2006-2007 season was titled "Evening with Elvis" and should have been "A Tribute to Elvis". Apologies to Jason Whited for the misprint.

Attention Board Members

The next meeting is November 6th at 6:30 PM.

Condolences

To Ed Jahn, our Set coordinator. (Daily World 10/8 Obit.)

His wife of 58 years, Anita, went to be with her Lord on Wednesday, Oct. 4, 2006. She died peacefully at her home in Montesano, from cancer.

A celebration of her life will be held at Central Park Baptist Church at 6308 Central Park Drive in Aberdeen, on Sunday, Oct. 22, 2006, at 4 p.m. Friends and family are invited to join us as we lovingly remember Anita's Life. She requested that any memorials be given to the Union Gospel Mission.
