SUBMIT YOUR SCRIPTS

Please submit plays to be considered by the board for the 2009-2010 season. We would like to vote this June. Sue Keltner has pointed out that Comedies and Musicals have the highest audience Attendance. Another concern pointed out by many is the LACK of men auditioning, but never a lack of women. Please keep this in mind too. We would like to start reading your submissions as soon as possible. Time slots open are Nov/Dec, Feb, May, July. Please let Debbie Lansing Know if you have a play to be considered and what time slot you would like. Thank you for your time and efforts!

RAPTURE OF THE DEEP

Westport Winery's latest wine, Rapture of the Deep, a sparkling cranberry wine, will be released for its first public tasting on Saturday, September 27 at the Driftwood Theatre's Champagne Opening. The Driftwood Theatre was selected by the Roberts' family to benefit from the sale of this wine. All of Westport Winery's vintages have a selected local charity to benefit from their sale. Since theatre is fantasy, this wine's label embraces the spirit of the surreal. The winery's signature lighthouse, drawn by Bob McCausland, rests in ruin on the ocean floor while a bubble filled with dolphins (representing the sparkling nature of the wine) floats in front of a passing shark. The underwater shark image is one shot by winery owner Blain Roberts when he owned Lahaina Divers, Hawaii's largest charter scuba diving business. The wine's back label says, "Divers call it nitrogen narcosis. Oh how those little bubbles change everything. Fortunately, our cran-boggling bubbly doesn't negatively affect your central nervous system. In fact, you can forget nerves all together as you relax and drink to the mysteries of the deep blue sea. This is your celebration." After the Driftwood Theatre event this wine is available for tasting for the public at the winery. Wine club members will enjoy early tasting of this wine when they visit the winery this week. Members of Driftwood Theatre assisted in bottling the wine on Saturday. All ages are welcome at the winery. Westport Winery is located on the corner of Highway 105 and South Arbor Road (halfway between Aberdeen and the Westport 'Y'). For more information call Westport Winery at 648-2224. The winery is open daily, year around from 11am to 6pm. Kim Roberts.

**I just wanted everyone to know that since the release of Rapture of the Deep, the patrons of the Westport Winery have been purchasing this great wine with enthusiasm and the holidays have contributed to their increased demand for this cranberry blessing. (From Wanda, Happy Winery employee)*
