

Driftwood Icon Retires

Margaret Nevills longtime Driftwood thespian has decided to step down from her position as our secretary.

Margaret has been active when it was located in Cosmopolis, Wa. She has performed in plays, been our secretary, and helped with the children's theatre after Betty Gretsch and Jane Mezera stepped down.

She is well known for roles in "Nunsense", "Moon Over Buffalo", "Arsenic and Old Lace" to name a few. She has been profiled by the Daily world for her contributions to our community. She continues to do reader's theatre for the local schools.

Thank you Margaret for your longtime dedication to our Theatre.

"Crimes of the Heart"

Congratulations to Brad Duffy, Director, Debbie Scoones, Director in Training, and the cast and crew of "Crimes of the Heart" for a great show and run. You did a wonderful job and nothing but compliments on your performances!

New Officers

We would like to welcome Margaret Tingwall as our new President. Margaret has taken care of our make-up and hair, acted on stage, painted and dressed our sets. She is also a long-time director, her most recently the play was "The Women".

We would also like to welcome Judy Dossett as our new Secretary. Judy was the Countess in the play "The Women". She has also been involved with the Bishop Center productions.

New Ticket Prices

After eight years of keeping ticket prices at $10, the board of directors has decided to raise it to $13 per ticket. These prices will go into effect beginning with our 2009 Fall play.

However, we are still keeping the discount for season tickets.

Four plays is $48, a savings of $4.

Full season (five plays) is $60, a savings of $5.

"Art" Directed by Gary Morean

Comedy - The fragile nature of friendship is exposed as tensions between three old friends are thrown into crisis when one purchases an expensive work of art in this Tony Award winning play with fiendishly clever writing, described as a marriage of Moliere and Woody Allen.

John Pratt as "Marc"

Dave Foscue as "Serge"

John Limitone as "Yvan"

The play runs July 10, 11, 17, 18, 24, 25. Curtain Time is 7:30 PM. Summer show has no matinee.
