Summer starts at the Driftwood!

Oleanna

By David Mamet

Directed by Gary Morean

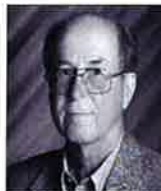

Play dates: July 9, 10, 16, 17, 23, 24, 30, 31 at 7:30pm Summer Show no matinee

Drama

In the era of political correctness, David Mamet has created a power struggle between a college professor and one of his female student who accused him of sexual exploitation and, by doing so, spoils his chances of being accorded tenure. The line is drawn and sides are taken, and the dispute often spills out into the audience and continues long after leaving the Theatre.

Director: Gary Morean

as (John)

Sara Henry
as (Carol)

Terry Rogers by: Stacy Murphy

Terry Rogers has lived on the Harbor for 27 years. She works for Dunsire printers and has for the last 17 years. Terry is married to Ron "Cork" Rogers and they have a cutie pie doggie named tootsie.

In all Terry has dedicated her time in over 30 Driftwood Productions as Stage Manager. Her First on stage appearance was in 1996 in "Father of the Bride". Her last on stage role was the women who "Bob liked to look at" in "The Vagina Monologues". Being stage manager is a tough job for anyone, but Terry is excellent at keeping the shows right on time! Also, she has assisted twice with Ron Rogers in, "The Queen of Bingo" and "Bullshot Crummond". In 2003 she became the Program trustee for the Board of Directors at the Driftwood. In 2006 she added front lobby picture boards to her list of duties. Terry was the 2009-2010 Mabs George Service Award recipient. A well deserved Honor. (Quote): "Volunteering at the Driftwood Theatre has taught me a lot about myself. But the best things about the Theatre are the life-long friendships that continue outside the playhouse doors, which have given me a real sense of belonging to my community."
