A well known Driftwood hero, Dorothy Logue Celebrated her 100th Birthday Jan. 2011. Dorothy has been apart of the Driftwood for over 40 years. She was Head of Front of house until two years ago when she retired. At her Birthday Celebration Dorothy was surrounded by over 150 friends and family members. Edward C. Logue, Dorothy's son, recently let it be known that she had bought a dress many years ago which she was going to wear to Ed's wedding or her 100th birthday, whichever came first. Well, we are happy to say she finally got a chance to wear that dress to her 100th birthday party!

We thank Dorothy for her wonderful years of service and continued support she gives the driftwood. It is always a pleasure to see her in the front row at a show. And make no mistake, if you are not loud enough on stage she will tell you. What a wonderful lady. Congratulations! By: Stacy Murphy
