Aberdeen, Washington
Over 50 Years of Community Theatre

February 2015

Volume 54, No. 1

Dorothee Logue

The 2014-2015 season of the Driftwood Players is dedicated in memory of Charter Member Valentine Pearson, in gratitude for her many years of service.

The Driftwood Players are sad to report the passing of longtime member Dorothee Logue. She had recently celebrated her 104th birthday. Dorothee is well known to many for her years of service to the theater, particularly as Front of House Trustee. The kitchen at the front of our current theater is honored as "Dorothee's Bar". Many patrons expect her to be there to take their tickets, even today.

Dorothee served the Driftwood for nearly 30 years, from 1969 to 1998. She was honored with Driftwood's highest honor, the Mabs George Service Award in 1990.

Always encouraging, Dorothee often let the actors know how well they had done. She was also known for her great sense of humor. We will truly miss her.

The hopes and dreams of ambitious young actresses are showcased in this bright, witty and sometimes emotional salute to the pursuit of a career in the arts.

Performances are Friday & Saturday, February 14, 20, 21, 27, 28 & March 6, 7 at 7:30; Sunday, March 1 at 1:30. When Annie's husband John dies of leukaemia, she and best friend Chris resolve to raise money for a new settee in the local hospital waiting room. They manage to persuade four fellow WI members to pose nude with them for an "alternative" calendar, with a little help from hospital porter and amateur photographer Lawrence. The news of the women's charitable venture spreads like wildfire, and hordes of press soon descend on the small village of Knapeley in the Yorkshire Dales. The calendar is a success, but Chris and Annie's friendship is put to the test under the strain of their new-found fame.

The cast includes roles for 1 woman in her 20s and 9 women that range from their 30s to 60s. There are also 2 men, 20 to 30 years old and 2 men in their 40s to 60s.

Show dates are in April and May. Don't miss this great opportunity to tread the boards in this touching comedy.
